MAIL ACCUMULATES FOR PACIFIC FLEET

At the postoffice a lot of mail is accumulating for the Pacific fleet, an indication other than the growing piles of coal on the wharves that Admiral Swinburne's cruisers and torpedo flotilla are on the way back to Honolulu from Samoa. One of the chief delights of the bluejackets is to receive mail from home, and another is to send a batch of mail to the folks. That the bluejackets have not been slighted in letters from the mainland may be judged from the pile of sacks awaiting them on arrival from the South Seas. The fleet is due here the morning of October 7.

Was a Cattle Boat.

The American-Hawaiian steamship Virginian, which arrived during the week from Seattle, was built about five years ago for the Atlantic Transport Service and has only been in the Pacific trade since last February. She was built especially for the cattle trade and made many voyages between Baltimore and London. She is equipped for carrying 750 head of cattle, in addition to having large cargo space. While the Virginian was last at Salina Cruz an accident occurred in which three Mexicans lost their lives. The men were working on the deck and fell into a hatch. Captain Colcord, in command of the Virginian, is a genial mariner and has many friends here.

Columbian's Cyclone.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 20.—For twenty-four hours the big freighter Columbian, Captain Coleord, of the American-Hawaiian line, plowed through a miniature cyclone on her voyage from Hilo to Salina Cruz. The gale was in the nature of a circular storm, and the wind came from all points of the compass. Captain Coleord reported that it was the most unusual gale for the time and place that he ever experienced. The storm was encountered on August 29 in latitude 19, longitude 116. The Columbian was heavily laden with sugar from the Islands and rode easily through the rough seas and gales which might have caused damage to lighter ships. The Columbian arrived today from Salina Cruz, having made the run up the coast in seven days and three hours, which is record time. Better time would have been made but for the fact that the Columbian encountered a dense fog off Santa Barbara channel, which stayed the vessel until she entered the harbor.

The Columbian is now in port and will shortly leave for Hilo to load the last of the New York via Tehuantepec sugar.

Notice to Mariners.

Notice has been received that Saunders Reef Whistling Buoy, SR2, located about 3.8 mile SW. by S. from the outer rock on Saunders Reef, and 7 1/2 miles below Point Arena, is adrift, and going south. It will be replaced as soon as practicable.

By order of the Lighthouse Board.
R. F. LOPEZ,
Commander, U. S. N., Inspector, 12th Lighthouse District.

Shipping Notes.

The Niihau, in yesterday from Kawaihau, brought 71 head of cattle. The Lurline returned yesterday from Hilo. She loads and leaves for San Francisco October 10.

The following sugar awaits shipment on Hawaii: Olua, 8833 bags; Wai-naku, shipped all yesterday; Punaluu, 4300; Honouapo, 489; other places all cleaned out.

Yeoman Abbey of the Captain of the Yard's office at the naval station leaves for Kauai this week on a three weeks' furlough, the first he has had in six years.

The Japanese training cruisers Aso and Soya, formerly the Russian cruisers Bayan and Variag, which are to visit Honolulu next spring, will also pay a visit to San Francisco, Seattle, Portland, Victoria and Esquimaux.

The Mauna Kea arrived yesterday from Hilo and Maui with the following cargo: 2 autos, 2 bundles S. skins, 2 boxes pigs, 3 bags coin, 3 crates celery, 5 bags cocoa, 8 bags Tel. pins, 8 boxes chickens, 9 bags spuds, 10 bags awa, 15 tubs sake, 33 barrels empty bottles, 23 empty kegs, 40 cases sardines, 95 bundles hides, 1236 railroad ties, 233 packages sundries.

THAT WAS ENOUGH FOR WILLIE.

One morning a small boy of four bumped his head on the edge of a table, inflicting a sharp bruise. First he laughed and then he cried. His mother asked him why he laughed if his head was painful. "Because," replied Willie, "Tommy Jones, who is a Christian Scientist, said that if you laughed when you got hurt it would not hurt any more."

"And did you believe that?" asked his mother.

"Yes, I did, but I've found out that he is a liar."

Tom—I ate some of the cake she made just to make myself solid. Dice—Did you succeed? Tom—I couldn't feel any more solid if I had been concrete or building stone.—Utica Herald.

INQUIRIES FOR REFUSE MOLASSES.

An inquiry has been received by the Chamber of Commerce from the Oregon Development League regarding the possibility of securing a supply of the residue from sugar refining, the black molasses, for which there is now a big demand to mix with other food stuff for cattle feed. The inquiry is for the cost delivered in Portland, the conditions under which it can be shipped and the style of package.

PLEAS AND NOL-PROSSES.

Emery Harris, colored, of the U. S. S. Iroquois, charged with attacking a woman with a razor, pleaded guilty to an indictment for assault before Judge Robinson yesterday. Deputy Attorney General Larnach yesterday entered nol-prosses as to Mage and Mannel Cruz, before Judge Robinson. In his opinion the evidence did not warrant a conviction.
